

	0	1	2	3	4	5	6	Total
Audience	I have used some letters or drawings.	My text is very simple but hard to understand.	I have included some information to try and make my writing clear to the reader.	My text is clear to understand and I have included some details to give further information.	The information in my text helps the reader to understand my point of view. I have used some persuasive language and devices to make my writing interesting.	I have carefully selected from a range of persuasive devices to try and persuade the reader of my opinion. My writing is clear and convincing.	I have used a strong, clear voice to control my relationship with the reader. I have used effective persuasive devices throughout my text to influence the reader. I have considered the reader's values and expectations.
Text Structure	My text does not follow a persuasive structure.	I have written one part of a persuasive text.	I have written two parts of a persuasive text. OR I have an introduction, body and conclusion but none of these are very clear.	My text contains a clear introduction, body and conclusion but these lack detail. OR My text contains two clear parts and one of these is detailed.	All parts of my text are well developed. My introduction clearly gives my opinion. The body has reasons and detailed supporting evidence. My conclusion reinforces my opinion.
Ideas	My text lacks ideas.	My text contains one idea. OR My ideas are not related to each other. OR My ideas are not related to the topic.	I have used one idea and included some extra detail. OR I have a few ideas that are related to each other but there are no extra details.	My ideas have some extra details. OR I have many ideas that relate to the argument but there are no extra details. OR I have one idea with lots of related extra details.	My ideas have lots of related extra details and they help to give my opinion to the reader.	My detailed ideas have been carefully chosen to persuade the reader.
Persuasive Devices	I have used no persuasive devices.	I have given my personal opinion. Or I have used one persuasive device.	I have used three or more persuasive devices that help to tell the reader what I think.	I have used different devices to try and persuade my reader in some parts of my text.	I have used a range of effective persuasive devices throughout my text.
Vocabulary	There are no words in my text. It has letters or drawings only.	I have written a very short text.	Most of my words are simple. I have used two or three interesting words to affect the reader.	I have used four or more interesting words or word groups to affect the reader.	I have used interesting words or word groups throughout my text to enhance the meaning and affect the reader.	I have carefully chosen a wide variety of interesting words or word groups to include throughout my text. They are used in a fluent and confident manner.
Cohesion	I have used letters or drawings that don't fit together into one clear idea.	I have written a very short text that is hard to follow.	My text is mostly easy to understand	I have used linking words so that my text flows well and is easy to follow.	I have used a range of linking words correctly to ensure continuity throughout my text.
Paragraphing	I have not written in paragraphs.	I have written at least two paragraphs. At least one of my paragraphs are focussed on one main idea or set ideas.	All of my paragraphs are focused on one idea or like ideas. At least one of my paragraphs has a clear topic sentence and supporting detail.	Each of my paragraphs are well structured around a main idea or set of ideas. They are thoughtfully ordered to build the argument.
Sentence Structure	I have not written in sentences.	I have written in sentences and some of these make sense.	I have used simple and some compound sentences that make sense. They help the reader to understand my story.	Most of my simple and compound sentences make sense AND I have used some complex sentences correctly.	My simple, compound and most of my complex sentences make sense OR All of my sentences make snese but they are quite similar.	All of my sentences make sense and show variety in length, structure and beginnings.	All of my sentences are correct and I have made thoughtful choices about their length, structure and beginnings to add to the meaning of my text.
Punctuation	I have not used any punctuation correctly.	I have some capital letters at the beginning of my sentences. OR I have some full stops at the end of my sentences.	Some of my sentences have capital letters and full stops. Names (proper nouns) have capital letters.	Most of my sentences have capital letters and full stops and I have used some other punctuation. OR All of my sentences have capital letters and full stops used correctly.	All of my sentences have capital letters and full stops used correctly and most of my other punctuation is correct.	Capital letters, full stops and a range of other punctuation have all been used correctly.
Spelling	I have no correct spelling in my work.	I have spelled a few words correctly.	I have correctly spelled most simple words and some common words (at least two).	I have correctly spelled most simple words and some common words (at least twenty).	I have correctly spelled all simple words, most common words and some difficult words (at least two).	I have correctly spelled all simple words, most common words and some difficult words (at least ten).	I have correctly spelled all words including at least ten difficult words and some challenging words.	