How to Use this Assessment:

This is an assessment for the purposes of intervention. The goal of this assessment is to help you choose the right instructional tools to benefit a student who has not yet learned their core phonics needs, but is not receiving phonics instruction, during their core learning time. If your entire class has not yet learned phonics, we recommend you teach our phonics units 1-7 and the games 1-9 in order, before using this assessment. Moreover, if you are planning on teaching our phonics lessons, we recommend you read our instructional guide first.

This assessment pairs with our phonics lessons and smartboard games. If a student does not know one or two sounds on a level, we recommend you teach these sounds via direct instruction, until the student can recall the sound the next day with automaticity.

If a student does not know their letter names yet, we recommend you teach the alphabet first via direct instruction, and singing. That being said, Phonics Game 8, can be modified to help teach the alphabet. In game 8, all 26 letters appear and students are asked to name the common sound for each letter. Teachers can have students who don't know their alphabet play this game and name the letter instead.

If a student knows less than three sounds on a level, we recommend you teach the corresponding lessons and games to the student until they can recall all sounds with automaticity, on a new day, before instruction.

Please note, the level 4 sounds are spread out over 2 games and 2 lessons (Unit 4 and Unit 4B). We recommend you always start with the lowest level that students do not know the sounds for.

If a student knows all the sounds on this assessment, but is still not reading with automaticity, we recommend assessing for their sight word vocabulary level, and their morphological awareness level. Moreover, we recommend you start completing repeated reading drills with the student. Please, see the instructional guide for more details.
