

Writing a Limerick

Steps to Success - Planning your Limerick

1 Pick a name of a person.

There once was a called

di DUM di di DUM di di DUM

There once was a young man from Ealing.

2 Find some rhymes for that name and write line 2.
You could look in a rhyming dictionary.

Who

di DUM di di DUM di di DUM

Who would always hang from the ceiling.

3 Add some action and write lines 3 and 4 with a different rhyme.

They

di DUM di di DUM

He couldn't wear a hat,

But

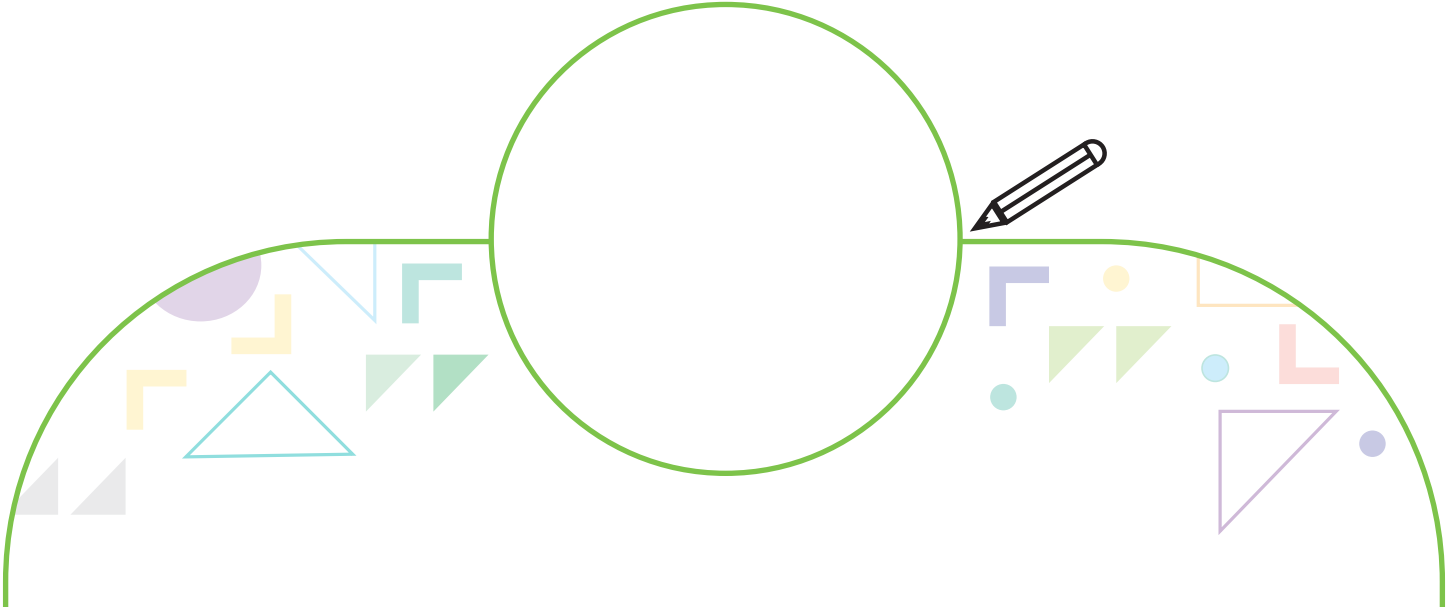

di DUM di di DUM

But could hang like a bat,

4 Now write line 5. Make sure that it rhymes with lines 1 and 2.

di DUM di di DUM di di DUM

And said, "What a wonderful feeling!"

Think of a title for your Limerick poem.
