

Author's Purpose Worksheet

An author's purpose explains why the author wrote the text. It is what the author was hoping the reader would get from reading their writing. The author's purpose could be...

To Persuade

To Inform

To Entertain

To Describe

To Explain

To Inquire

To Instruct

To Recount

To Socialise

Below is a list of text types. Can you decide on the author's purpose for writing the text? Write your answer in the box.

1. A newspaper article about a winter storm. Author's purpose:	2. A book of jokes. Author's purpose:
3. Classroom Rules poster. Author's purpose:	4. The school café menu Author's purpose:
5. An birthday party invitation Author's purpose:	6. A diary entry. Author's purpose:
7. An autobiography of the author's life. Author's purpose:	8. A fiction book about unicorns. Author's purpose:
9. An advert for a new chocolate bar. Author's purpose:	10. A narrative title 'The Friendly Giant' Author's purpose:
11. A thesaurus. Author's purpose:	12. A questionnaire – What is 4E's favourite lolly? Author's purpose:
13. A recipe to make fairy bread Author's purpose:	14. A PowerPoint with directions to school camp. Author's purpose:
15. A magazine article about African elephants. Author's purpose:	16. A procedural text: How to make a paper airplane. Author's purpose:

Author's Purpose Answers

1. A newspaper article about a winter storm. Author's purpose: To Inform	2. A book of jokes. Author's purpose: To Entertain
3. Classroom Rules poster. Author's purpose: To Explain	4. The school café menu Author's purpose: To Describe
5. An birthday party invitation Author's purpose: To Socialise or To Inquire	6. A diary entry. Author's purpose: To Recount
7. An autobiography of the author's life. Author's purpose: To Recount or To Inform	8. A fiction book about unicorns. Author's purpose: To Entertain
9. An advert for a new chocolate bar. Author's purpose: To Persuade	10. A narrative title 'The Friendly Giant' Author's purpose: To Entertain
11. A thesaurus. Author's purpose: To Inform	12. A questionnaire – What is 4E's favourite lolly? Author's purpose: To Inquire
13. A recipe to make fairy bread Author's purpose: To Instruct	14. A PowerPoint with directions to school camp. Author's purpose: To Instruct
15. A magazine article about African elephants. Author's purpose: To Inform	16. A procedural text: How to make a paper airplane. Author's purpose: To Explain