

Book Review Checklist

Features of Book Reviews
Written in first person (eg. I, me, my)
Background information about the book/author/the time the book was written (includes title and author's full name)
Detailed information about the book (title, genre, characters, plot, themes, setting)
Your own opinion/analysis about the book (what you liked/didn't like and why, recommended readers, compared to other books in the genre, interesting language used)
Is organised appropriately (background information, information about the book, your opinion/analysis)
Includes supporting evidence (examples and quotes from the book)
Has a rating of the book at the end
Descriptive and opinion-based language
Spelling and grammar has been checked	